LAWRENCE COLL

Hammersmith Augt. 5.
1859

My Dear Sir,

I was very sorry not to be able to keep my appointment yesterday. I tried to do so, and was on my way; but I had been more than usually unwell for some days past, and was so disordered, that I was obliged to return.

Trusting to be able to come to you next week, though not till late, ~~Wednesday~~ will you be good enough to let me know what day & hour will be most convenient to you for any to Doing.

I am afraid I may have delayed your evening's return to pleasant Hampstead yet hope otherwise too.

Very sincerely yours,

Leigh Hunt

F. K. Esqr.
